

Keep an overview of your personal tax situation

The constant changes in tax laws, their increasing variety and complexity represent a daily challenge for all taxpayers. Growing globalisation also plays its part.

Thanks to our strong experience, we can advise you, discuss available options and support you in all necessary administrative steps.

Grant Thornton is your contact for tax advice, also in the private sector.

Our services:

- Preparation and control of your personal income tax return or the income tax returns of your employees – both for persons residing in Luxembourg and for cross-border commuters – at our offices or on site at your place of work
- Preparation of profit assessment declarations for partnerships, real estate communities or SCIs, withholding tax declarations for the payment of dividends or directors' fees, withholding tax declarations for non-resident artists and sportsmen working in Luxembourg, VAT declarations and similar
- Tax calculations based on tax returns and tax simulations of various scenarios
- Control of tax assessments
- Contact with tax authorities and assistance with tax inspections
- Advice on day-to-day tax issues (real estate taxation, accounting obligations, self-employment, social security and pension entitlements, posting of employees, tax optimisation by making full use of deductions, etc.)
- Inheritance planning with regard to taxation in Luxembourg
- Individually tailored consulting or training sessions

Key benefits of our services:

- An experienced, multilingual team in Luxembourg in close cooperation with internal and international tax experts and the various tax departments of our Grant Thornton international network
- We attach great importance to a personal, individually tailored and result-oriented support by fixed contact persons
- Access to our GT Portal, an IT solution in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) for secure and confidential transmission of documents
