

Sustainability Services

Taking ownership of a sustainable future for all

Industry and investor demands for corporate sustainability and responsible financing are rapidly increasing. As a response to the evolving regulatory landscape, robust environmental, social and governance practices are critical to long-term business survival.

Sustainable Finance: high priority for the financial sector

Finance is identified as the key tool for transition in the European Commission's Action Plan: Financing Sustainable Growth. The reorientation of capital flows towards sustainable investment and management of financial risks stemming from climate change, environmental degradation, and social issues are now urgent.

The financial sector is undergoing a transformation due to increasingly stringent legislations which are placing heightened expectations on organisations to consider environmental, social and governance issues while enhancing transparency.

Grant Thornton Luxembourg offers advisory services to clients who seek to comply with and proactively adhere to industry regulations.

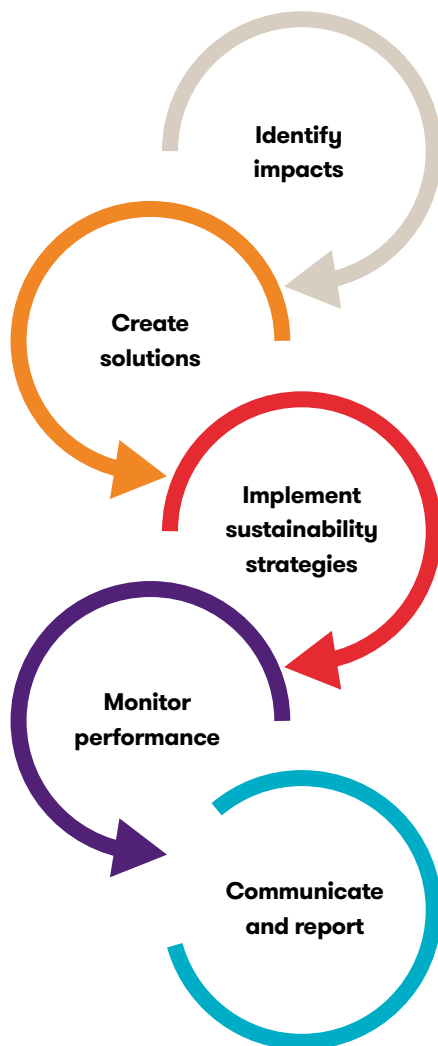

Our Sustainable Finance Services

- Sustainable finance regulatory gap analysis (SFDR, EU Taxonomy, amended EU regulations and CSSF circulars)
- Sustainability strategy and action plan development
- ESG risk management
- Assurance services for non-financial disclosures
- Upskilling services: foundation & awareness trainings
- Digital solution for portfolio and ESG risk management

Corporate Sustainability: at the heart of the business model

Sustainability is inevitably a key aspect that needs to be considered by each corporation, regardless of its sector and size. Assessing the level of maturity in a corporate's sustainability journey is key to identifying the material topics of concern and the impacts related to its operations. Proactive efforts and sector best practices implementation are essential for each corporate that wishes to remain competitive in the market by enhancing its reputation, stakeholder trust and customer loyalty. In addition to stakeholders' demands, compliance is of critical importance to business survival in the long term.

Grant Thornton provides you with a complete consulting and reporting solution to help you create sustainable and meaningful impact.

Our Corporate Sustainability Services

- Compliance with NFRD, CSRD, EU Taxonomy and national guidelines
- Materiality assessment
- Stakeholder engagement
- Sustainability management & strategy development
- Sustainability reporting (GRI, UNGC, SDGs, TCFD, SASB)
- Sustainability performance monitoring & evaluation
- Upskilling services: foundation & awareness trainings
- Assurance services for non-financial disclosures

“Grant Thornton Luxembourg offers advisory and technical services to clients who wish to monitor, measure and disclose their sustainability performance.”
